

Privacy Policy:

This Privacy Policy explains how Cracker, Inc. ('Cracker' or 'we') uses, shares and protects personal information that we collect on gmatcracker.com, gmatcracker.org and other web-sites operated by Cracker (collectively referred to as 'Sites'). By visiting the Sites or using, purchasing or enrolling in Cracker's products, services or events (collectively referred to as 'Programs'), You agree to this Privacy Policy, as it may be changed from time to time. In this Privacy Policy, persons or users with permission to use Programs are defined as 'Registered Users'.

Information we collect:

Cracker may collect some personal information that you voluntarily provide to us through our registration forms or any other means. Personal information may include, but is not restricted to, your name, telephone number, postal address, educational background, credit card or other billing information, and e-mail address.

Cracker automatically receives information from your device when you use our Programs. This information may include the device's IP address, information you search for on the Site, browser type, mobile carrier, system configuration, and other interactions with the Programs.

Cracker may use cookies to collect information, create a personalized web-experience and improve our Programs. Cookies track what you search for on the Sites and what you look at and purchase. You may disable your browser to accept cookies from the Sites. If you do not accept cookies, however, you may not be able to use all features of the Programs.

Use of information we collect:

Cracker may use your personal information to

- enroll you in any of our Programs;
- allow you access to our Sites;
- support and develop our business;
- send you information about our Programs or third party's products;
- personalize and improve your experience;
- conduct marketing analysis.

Cracker may also use your personal information otherwise as described to you at the point of collection.

Disclosure of your personal data:

Cracker does not give, sell, rent, share, or trade your personal information with third parties except with your consent or as outlined in this Privacy Policy.

Cracker may use third party companies to improve and analyze the Programs. These third party companies may have a temporary access to certain of your information only for purposes of performing these tasks. You may request the removal of your personal data at any time.

If payment for your Program was made by a third party, Cracker may share your personal data with this third party, even if you paid for the Program in part yourself.

If we are involved in a merger, acquisition or sale of all or a share of our assets, your personal information may be transferred as part of that transaction.

We may share your personal data with third party applications and services, with your consent. Cracker is not responsible for what third parties do with your information.

We may disclose your non-personal information, such as user-statistics for our Programs.

Data retention

If you are a Registered User, you may change or delete your personal information provided in your account profile by changing your account registration information. Cracker may retain your personal information to be able to resolve disputes and enforce our agreements.

Security of personal information

When you enter sensitive data (such as billing information) on our forms, Cracker, or third party services acting on our behalf, encrypts the transmission of that information. However, no method of electronic transmission is completely secure. Therefore, Cracker does not guarantee the absolute security of the information submitted to us.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

Cracker may change this Privacy Policy from time to time without any notice. We recommend that you check our Site(s) from time to time to see changes, if any, in this Privacy Policy or any of our other policies.
